Office of the Saturday Visiter
Baltimore, June 15th 1846

My Dear Madam: Relying on your spirit of marked sympathy in my behalf, I beg leave to introduce to a share of your kindness, the bearer of this L. N. Parmalee, my quondam clerk. Mr P. goes North to visit his relatives — and has consented, meanwhile, to exert himself in behalf of my paper. Any thing you may be do towards promoting his comfort and success, will be cordially acknowledged by me, and placed to your act in that now crowded book of obligations conferred on

Yours Very Truly
